IMMIGRATION

An introduction to Immigration with Quastels

What we do

Our Immigration departments specialise in matters involving private clients, corporate, global mobility, asylum, and human rights work.

Our Expertise

We are routinely instructed on highly complex cases that fall outside of the scope of the Immigration Rules.

Our Team

Our work is carried out by qualified Solicitors with appropriate assistance, and we employ years of legal acumen and negotiation skills to resolve your case in the most efficient and prudent manner, in turn saving you time, cost and stress.

Our Experience

We always intend to prepare a formidable application to mitigate having to take your matter to court by preparing a meritorious application at first instance.

Our Cost

Depending on the type of case or application and your circumstances we may offer a fixed fee (arranged fee) or an hourly-rated quote for our costs.

Fee Structure

The factors affecting each client are unique and therefore difficult to quantify into a fixed price, we have therefore provided a range as to our typical fees.

Understanding Our Fees

Estimate Fees & Quotations

We do offer fixed fees for most of our personal and corporate immigration work. A fixed fee is a pre-agreed fee, which will not be increased or decreased and is not dependent on the application being successful. As set out above, any disbursements or expenses will be payable in addition to our fees. In the event you withdraw instruction prior to the submission of your application, the fixed fee, together with any disbursements or expenses will remain payable in full.

Factors Which May Increase The Overall Cost Of Your Case

- ✓ Unexpected circumstances in your immigration history, personal circumstances, financial situation which we were not aware of at the point of instruction.
- ✓ Delays in receiving information requested.
- ✓ Information provided being, inadequate, out of date or requiring translation.
- ✓ Where your case has a short deadline.
- ✓ Where we have undertaken work for you in the past and we have pre-existing knowledge of your case or immigration history.
- ✓ Where we submit multiple applications for the same entity or family.
- ✓ Where you provide sufficient and concise information at our initial meeting to demonstrate you clearly meet the Immigration Rules.

We will liaise with you and discuss the options and costs involved prior to instructing Counsel. We ensure you will be kept informed as to the hourly rates of any barrister instructed in your case.

Our Team

Please note our pricing list sets out the various types of immigration applications. In certain circumstances we may adopt a strategy which involves a combination of applications in order to advance your case. We will always advise upon the anticipated cost in advance. In the event your matter progresses, and it further costs may be necessary; we will update you at the earliest opportunity.

Our fees quoted above are for standard applications. More complex cases will attract higher fees, such as those which fall outside of the scope of the Immigration Rules, but we will always advise you of these in advance.
