Our Fees

Our pricing for bringing and defending claims in the Employment Tribunal for unfair or wrongful dismissal to a final hearing is as follows:

SIMPLE CASE

£15,000 - £30,000 (excluding VAT)

MEDIUM COMPLEXITY CASE

£30,000 to £50,000 (excluding VAT)

HIGH COMPLEXITY CASE

£50,000 to £100,000 (excluding VAT)

Please note that very complex cases could exceed £100,000

Factors that could make a case more complex:

- ✓ If it is necessary to make or defend applications to amend claims or to provide further information about an existing claim
- ✓ Defending claims that are brought by litigants in person
- ✓ Making or defending a costs application
- ✓ Complex preliminary issues such as whether the claimant is disabled (if this is not agreed by the parties)
- ✓ If it is an automatic unfair dismissal claim e.g. if you are dismissed because you are pregnant
- ✓ Allegations of discrimination which are linked to the dismissal
- ✓ The number of witnesses and documents

Disbursements

What Are Disbursements?

Disbursements are costs related to your matter that are payable to third parties, such as court fees. We handle the payment of the disbursements on your behalf to ensure a smoother process.

Counsel's Fees

Counsel's fees estimated between £5,000 and £20,000 (excluding VAT) for the first day of the Tribunal Hearing (including preparation time) and between £1,500 and £7,500 per day (excluding VAT) for each additional day of the Hearing (depending on experience of the advocate).

Key stages

The stages set out below are an indication and if some of stages above are not required, the fee will be reduced. You may wish to handle the claim yourself and only have our advice in relation to some of the stages. This can also be arranged on your individual needs.

The fees set out above cover all of the work in relation to the following key stages of a claim:

Step 1

Taking your initial instructions, reviewing the papers and advising you on merits and likely compensation (this is likely to be revisited throughout the matter and subject to change)

Step 2

Entering into pre-claim conciliation where this is mandatory to explore whether a settlement can be reached;

Step 3

Preparing claim or response

Step 4

Reviewing and advising on claim or response from other party

Step 5

Exploring settlement and negotiating settlement throughout the process

Step 6

Preparing or considering a schedule of loss

Step 7

Preparing for (and attending) a Preliminary Hearing

Step 8

Exchanging documents with the other party and agreeing a bundle of documents

Step 9

Taking witness statements, drafting statements and agreeing their content with witnesses

Step 10

Preparing bundle of documents, reviewing and advising on the other party's witness statements

Step 11

Agreeing a list of issues, a chronology and/or cast list.

Step 12

Preparation and attendance at Final Hearing, including instructions to Counsel

How long will my matter take?

Average Case Duration

The time that it takes from taking your initial instructions to the final resolution of your matter depends largely on the stage at which your case is resolved. If a settlement is reached during pre-claim conciliation, your case is likely to take four to 12 weeks.

Final Hearing Case Duration

If your claim proceeds to a Final Hearing, your case is likely to take between six and 18 months. This is just an estimate and we will of course be able to give you a more accurate timescale once we have more information and as the matter progresses.
